Read the prophecy of hope that shines in this day. Can you not see the bow spilling its glory across the horizon in the strong confidence mutually maintained and demonstrated among our people. Failure is never written in the history of such a race.

Rev. A. J. Futch, of Emerson, was a caller at our office this morning. His visit to Live Oak was made chiefly in the interest of a new church that is being erected at Emerson. Mr. Futch reports his section of the country at par, but says few have sold their cotton, yet.

Suwannee county, rich in agricultural soil and richer still in brain and brawn is on the threshold of a better day. Our farmers are laying plans for better and bigger crops, and our business men are devising ways and means to meet emergencies and make markets second to none in the State. Every man to his post with a cheerful heart and happy song, and victory over all conditions is ours.

C. H. Tedder and wife came in yesterday from New York, where they have been sojourning for a season. Mrs. Tedder was formerly Miss Nellie Tullis, of Atlanta, and the marriage took place in that city on the 1st inst. This is the first opportunity that Mr. Tedder's scores of friends have had an opportunity to congratulate him in person. He and his bride are receiving a most hearty welcome while here, and congratulations are being showered upon them. Mr. Tedder's present home is in Tampa. They will return there after a few days' visit here.

Willard Reeves, the ten-year-old son of Mrs. Reeves, of this city, died at their home this morning at five o'clock. The immediate cause of his death was Bright's disease. Some two weeks since he had a severe case of scarletina, but had recovered from that, with the exception of the after effects. The funeral services were held at the residence this afternoon at three o'clock and the remains, which are under the direction of Undertaker Potsdamer, will be shipped to Callahan this afternoon for interment. The family have the sincere sympathy of their friends and acquaintances.
